REPUBLICANS ON SPOT

When it comes to a vote to re-commit the tax bill, about 20 Republican congressmen are on the spot. In the past they introduced bills to increase the personal exemption of individual taxpayers, and now they are called upon by President Eisenhower, Speaker Joe Martin and the GOP leadership to vote against a better break for personal tax exemption. In other words they're called upon to vote directly against what they've already proposed, also against the Democrats who are solidly for what these Republicans originally proposed.

And since the bills these 20 Republicans have introduced are all a matter of record, they'll have a hard time explaining the switch to voters back home. Some, like forthright Congresswoman Edith Nourse Rogers of Massachusetts, aren't going to do any explaining. In addition there are four graceful spring shapes—two closely related and two brand-new. Close to the empire, is the slim contour, held over from last season's popularity with graceful innovations.
The princess silhouette, not far removed, continues its prominence with the slim bodice and domed skirt that have been great favorites with Juniors.

With 1954 comes the one-piece town dress that shows impeccable styling and detail. The important

Test Pilot is Killed When Plane Explodes

NELLIS AIR FORCE BASE, Nev. III — Test pilot Joseph A. Lynch was killed Wednesday in the same jet trainer which Prince Bernhard of the Netherlands used to break the sound barrier just two days earlier.

The plane exploded when a wing tip struck the ground as Lynch attempted to roll the ship moments after taking off

Lynch accompanied Prince Bernhard twice during the past week in the same aircraft while the prince was visiting in Los Angeles. On both occasions the prince flew the plane faster than sound, be coming the first member of royalty to crack the sonic barrier.

Lynch, an engineering test pilot for North American Aviation Co., had been assigned to demonstrate the new TF86F Sabre jet trainer to armed forces personnel at air bases throughout the country.

tep-notch basketball teams were ready today to climax the long season with NCAA semifinals and championship games Friday and

The four teams will play before capacity crowds of 10,000 in Municipal Auditorium.

Southern California's Trojans meet Bradley of Peoria, Ill., in the opening semifinal game at 9 p. m. EST Friday, followed by the battle between LaSalle of Philadelphia and Penn State of State College, Pa., at 10:45 p. m. EST. Winners play for the national title at 10:45 p. m. EST Saturday, after Sporting elements have been slow to pick a favorite because of the predominant number of upsets in regional NCAA play. But LaSalle, ranked No. 11 in the final United Press ratings, has the best record (24-4) among the semifinalists and was given a weak nod.

The Explorers from Philadelphia also boast the most publicized player on the four teams in big Tom Gola. The 6-7 scoring whiz Las won more than 40 major basketball awards during his three years at LaSalle.

Some fans liked Penn State as a favorite, and some backed Southern California and surprising Bradley. Penn State's unorthdox defense puzzled Louisiana State and Notre Dame and might be winning factor here. But Bradley's thumping of highly-regarded Okla-homa A&M, 71-57, brought the brought the Illinois team much following. Southern California won its way to the finals by whipping Santa Clara in two overtime periods in the Corvallis, Ore., regionals.

By CHARLES F. CARPENTIER Secretary of State

Your record as a driver may cost you your driver license. The new Drivers License Act gives the Secretary of State the discretionary authority to revoke or suspend the license of any driver who is habitually reckless or negligent in the operation of his car. (Section 34.)

The new law also provides for the Secretary of State to maintain a central file of all convictions for traffic violations. (Section 28.) It will make no difference if a driver is arrested for speeding, reckless driving, running stop signs or simllar offenses in such widely separated parts of the state as Rockford, Cairo, Quincy and Danville, all the convictions will appear on his record in the Secretary of State's office. Courts are required to report them, whether they are violations of a state law or a city ordinance. (Section 32.)

When an individual's record begins to look bad, the Secretary of State may call that person in for consultation and possible re-examination. If, even after that, he persists in consistently violating traffic laws, the Secretary may revoke or suspend his license. If he is con-victed of reckless driving three times within one year, the Secretary is required by the law to revoke his license. (Section 34 (a) 6.)

CHAMPAIGN P-Snapshots of the "Sweet Sixteen": Russ McKibben of Thornton jumped into the lead for the tournament scoring title with his 32 points against Cumberland, only six short of the mark set by La Grange's Ted Caiazza in 1953. Second to McKibben is Ronnie John-son, whose Rockford East team was knocked out of the meet by Moline despite his 27 points.

Most colorful uniform to show during Wednesday's sessions was worn by Howie Ewart, the standout forward who tallied 20 points in Cumberland's losing effort against Thornton. Howie wore the Pirates' regulation bright blue uniform with white stripes, yellow socks and M blood-red knee pads.

Only four players fouled out in C Wednesday's games. Three were D in the Moline-Rockford East game, W where 41 personals were called.

Hottest shooting percentage Wednesday was Moline's .479, followed by Thornton with .474. Danville hit .485 in the first half against D: Mount Vernon but slipped to .350 R for the game.

Thornton's 83 points against Cumberland was only five shy of the record, established by Freeport in W defeating Decatur 88-60 in 1951. Estes, g If Thornton could continue at that clip-for four games-it would break La Grange's 1953 tournament mark of 310 points.

Service Wives to Fix Heroes' Graves of determined American service wives is making sure that five of the nation's earliest heroes, who died 150 years ago "on the shores of Tripoli," aren't forgotten amid new generation of American fighting men on this historic coast.

The Officers Wives Club of Wheelus Air Force Base is spending time and money to restore and redecorate the five graves in a little cemetery near the harbor. overlooks the spot where the five Navy and Marine heroes were killed in 1804 in the war against the Barbary pirates.

Few Americans know that five of the men-the only ones whose bodies were recovered-still lie in a little courtyard inside a British diplomatic compound. Three of the bodies are unidentified. The two are those of Lt. Richard Summers, who commanded a bold but ill-fated operation, and Midshipman Henry Wadsworth.

The five died when the captured pirate vessel Intrepid exploded in Tripoli harbor during their attempt to blow up the pirate fleet.

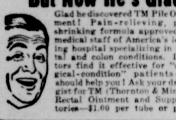

Summers was planning to sail the vessel, loaded with explosives. into the heart of the anchored Barbary fleet, set her afire, and escape with his men in rowboats. But the Intrepid blew up inside the harbor just short of her goal.

"Spring Opening Special" -- S O S

By KENNETH O. GILMORE NEA Staff Correspondent WASHINGTON - (NEA) - Ter thousand beautifully engraved copies of President Eisenhower's inaugural "little prayer of my own" are now being presented to Americans who have given distinguished service to the United States Savings Bonds program.

These distinctive awards, framed in wood from the platform on which he took the oath of office, haven't cost the Treasury one cent. It is a cooperative effort of individuals, associations and commercial concerns across the land.

The story of how those few and simple words, composed by President the very morning of the Inauguration, snowballed into a ruge project for the betterment of the nation, is a story of gen-

But a visitor from Vermont looking for a souvenir himself, spotted the boards marked for use by the Treasury. Immediately the Vermont State Development Commission offered to pro cess the lumber for some worth

Then Frencis V. Keesling, Jr. of San Francisco dug deep and insisted on buying the remaining 6800 feet of lumber. The Treasurv accepted his gift.

Then, top men in the greeting card industry offered to make thousands of fine engravings of the prayer. Strangely their unprompted decision to do this was reached in the same hotel suite where Eisenhower had composed
